

- Will you be AQTF compliant in 2009 in relation to staff quals?
- Are all your staff holding the appropriate qualifications?
- Do some need to update to the new TAA?
- Do you have new trainers who need the full TAA qualification?
- Do your staff need skill sets in either trainer or assessor?
- Do they just need the Bridging units?
- Have you planned your PD needs for this year?

With so much going on in the business world today, new IR laws imminent, global economic crisis, forecasting sales and responding to horrific natural disasters, we still must ensure that our businesses are sustainable and profitable into the future.
